EXCEPTIONAL DINING

Ask any resident and the first thing they will mention is that the food is wonderful.

Three meals daily, residents enjoy dining in a relaxed, restaurant-style setting with table side service. Residents rave about the food, and for good reason. We go above and beyond to provide a high quality dining experience at every meal. Delicious, fresh meals are planned and prepared by our very own culinary team that takes great pride in treating residents to a variety of exceptional dining options. Mealtimes are never boring at Mountain Creek Retirement Living!

Mountain Creek Retirement Living is locally managed which is a big advantage for our residents. The fact that the majority of our management and employees are from here gives us a home field advantage. Not only do we have a geographical connection with our residents, our culinary team also knows the foods that we Texans are accustomed to. Every day we serve the foods that you know and love.

Mountain Creek Retirement Living is one of the finest choices you will find in independent living.

Naturally we're biased, but that's because we take great pride in offering exceptional value, service and respect to our residents.

Grand Prairie natives and long-time residents are drawn to Mountain Creek as their first choice in independent retirement living. This was by design, opening Mountain Creek Retirement Living as a special place for Grand Prairie seniors to retire.

Be amongst friends and convenient to family in your familiar surroundings – your hometown. Here there are plenty of places you can go for camaraderie, like challenging a neighbor to a friendly game of cards or shuffleboard or by joining in on the many activities available to you every day.

Spend your time in the company of new friends, exploring favorite pastimes or unwinding in the privacy of your apartment. Relax and enjoy a stress-free lifestyle where everything is taken care of. It's all for you!

At Mountain Creek Retirement Living you maintain your freedom and independence so you can simply enjoy life.

Say good-bye to the decades of home chores and responsibilities of maintaining property. Start living the stress-free life you deserve. Moving to Mountain Creek Retirement Living is by no means giving up your freedom; you're actually getting it!

"Everything is taken care of for you here. The staff works very hard to keep us happy."
